RUINART CHAMPAGNE

The very first champagne House, Ruinart is the symbol of a savoir-faire and an "art de vivre" that are famed all over the world. Each of its cuvées bears the distinctive signature of chardonnay, the House's emblematic grape variety. The House of Ruinart was founded on September 1, 1729 by Nicolas Ruinart. His uncle, a learned Benedictine monk called Dom Thierry Ruinart had incredible insight. He foretold that this new "wine with bubbles", developed in his native region of Champagne and which the royal courts of Europe adored, was destined for a bright future. The creation of the House of Ruinart coincided with the dawn of the Enlightenment in France and of the French "art de vivre". There arose in France a true culture of everything good and beautiful, favouring fine and elegant, light and sophisticated, delicate and rare taste. The cuvées naturally found their place. Driven by a constant quest for excellence and the absolute, the House selected chardonnay, a rare and fragile grape variety, as the common thread for all its cuvées.

Ruinart, Brut, NV

R de Ruinart is the epitome of freshness and balance with generous proportions of Chardonnay (40%), Pinot Noir (50 to 55%), and Pinot Meunier (5 to 10%).

Ruinart Blanc de Blancs, Brut, NV

Ruinart Blanc de Blancs embodies purity of the Chardonnay grapes from which it is made exclusively. Made primarily with premiers cru from the cote des blancs and montagne de Reims terroirs, it is intensely aromatic.

Champagne, France

Ruinart Rosé, Brut, NV

A subtle nose of cherry, spice and freshly-picked red berries leads to a fleshy, elegant and delightfully smooth finish.

Dom Ruinart 2004

On the palate this vintage is initially direct but silky, sustained by mineral notes. The ephemeral nature of the Dom Ruinart 2004 is then revealed through citrus fruit freshness with touches of gentian. The very long finish is characterised by grapefruit and kumquat zest notes with just the slightest hints of salinity.
